

JENNINGS NORTHWEST REGIONAL UTILITIES
WASTEWATER UTILITY SPECIAL RATE POLICY

Jennings Northwest Regional Utilities (hereinafter "JNRU"), a regional wastewater utility, organized and operating under Indiana Code 13-26, hereby establishes its Special Rate Policy for payment and collection of rates, fees and charges for use of JNRU's wastewater collection and treatment system, to-wit:

1. All rates, fees and charges shall be timely collected when due and failure to pay said rates, fees and charges when due shall result in placement of liens against the subject real estate, as permitted by law;
2. Any real estate which is connected to and served by JNRU's wastewater system, to which service is disconnected, shall be subject to a reconnection fee should wastewater service be desired in the future, such reconnection fee shall be equal to a fixed reconnection fee, plus a charge equal to the accumulated minimum monthly wastewater treatment bill for those months that wastewater service is disconnected, as if the disconnection had never occurred.
3. Wastewater utility personnel shall pursue these rates, fees and charges through all lawful means, including resort to the Jennings County Courts.

SO ADOPTED this 22 day of February, 2010.
